

PUBLIC NOTICE

Listening Session on Biomass Facilities

The Madison County Planning Board invites community members, industry stakeholders, environmental advocates, and other interested parties to a listening session on Biomass Facilities. This session will prominently feature a review of the Draft Biomass Facility Ordinance Amendments developed by the Biomass Facility Workgroup. We aim to gather feedback and address concerns.

Date: Tuesday, September 19th

Time: 5:30 pm-6:30 pm

Location: Madison County Library, Marshall

Agenda:

- 1. Welcome and Introduction - Briefing on the session's objectives.
- 2. Presentation of Draft Ordinance Amendments - Introduction to the proposed amendments by the Biomass Facility Workgroup.
- 3. Feedback Session - Attendees are invited to share their thoughts, ask questions, and provide feedback on the proposed amendments and broader concerns.
- 4. Summary of Insights - Highlighting the main points and feedback obtained.
- 5. Conclusion and Next Steps - Information on future engagement opportunities and the integration of session feedback.

Participation Guidelines:

1. While pre-registration isn't mandatory, it is appreciated. Contact Brad Guth at bguth@madisoncountync.gov for registration or inquiries.
2. It's beneficial for attendees to review the draft amendments before the session (available at our website: (<https://www.madisoncountync.gov/planning-and-zoning.html>)) for a more informed discussion.
3. Participants should keep comments and discussions relevant to the topic of biomass facilities and the proposed amendments, ensuring a respectful and constructive environment.
4. If you'd like to submit written feedback on the draft amendments, please send your insights to bguth@madisoncountync.gov by September 30.

We value your insights and participation in shaping our community's approach to biomass facilities. Join us for a constructive and insightful discussion.
